Approved for Release: 2016/06/10 C06569676

Slobodan MILOSEVIC
(Phonetic: meeLOHschev eech)

President, "Federal Republic of Yugoslavia[1]" (FRY) (since July 1997)

Addressed as: Mr. President

Professional History

1959	Joined the Communist Party of Yugoslavia.
1964-84	Held a series of economic-related party positions.
1968	Joined a Belgrade firm, Technogas.
1973	Appointed director of Technogas.
1978	Assumed the post of president of the Bank of Belgrade.
1984-86	Chief, Belgrade Communist Party.
1989	Elected President, Serbia.
Dec 1992-97	Reelected President, Serbia.
July 1997	Elected President, FRY; resigned from the office of President of Serbia.

Education

Holds a degree from the Law Faculty of the University of Belgrade.

Personal Data

Born 20 August 1941 in Pozarevac; married to Mirjana Markovic; has a daughter and a son, Marija and Marko; drinks scotch and smokes cigars.

Language

Speaks excellent, though accented, English.

---

[1]The US Government does not officially recognize the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia. (U)

LP 97-104995
07 August 97

Approved for Release: 2016/06/10 C06569676